BIWEEKLY SERVICE BEGINS.

The American-Hawaiian S. S. Nebraskan arrived early yesterday morning according to schedule, bringing 81 bags of mail. She had fine weather all the way down. Chief Officer Colburn reports that in latitude 30 degrees and three seconds north, and longitude 131 degrees and 55 minutes west, they sighted the bark Thomas P. Emigh. At the same time they sighted a full rigged ship bound south, but she was too far off to see her name.

The Nebraskan began the biweekly direct service between Honolulu and San Francisco. She sailed according to the schedule; she arrived here according to the schedule. She will sail for Kahului at 3 o'clock this afternoon, to discharge a thousand tons of freight there, and load sugar and will return here and sail from Honolulu for San Francisco next Saturday according to the biweekly schedule. The biweekly service will be maintained by the Nebraskan and the Nevada.

THE KASATO MARU.

The Kasato Maru sails today for Japan. She has 3000 tons of nitrates, and a considerable number of passengers for Japan. The Nebraskan and the Kasato sailing today will give an unusual Sunday activity to the waterfront.

A LONELY DEPARTURE.

The Nippon Maru got away at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for San Francisco after having been in port over thirty hours. She left 500 tons of cargo for this port consisting mostly of sugar bags. As she was in quarantine, had only a handful of through passengers anyway, and took none from here, her departure was a very quiet, unobtrusive and undemonstrative matter. There wasn't a lei seen on her decks as she pulled away from the wharf. The band was not there. There was only an occasional messenger with belated letters during her last half hour at the wharf, coming to her gangway. The letters were deposited in a flour sack which hung on the gangway rail, the regular mail bag for some reason not being on duty.

DEPARTURE OF THE THOMAS.

The transport Thomas sailed away for Guam, Iloilo, and Manila at 12:40 o'clock, coaling operations not being concluded much before that. There were a good many people at the wharf to see the transport go in spite of the rainy weather. Many people brought leis for Major General Greeley and his wife and daughter, and a great many more brought them for Mrs. Inez Shorb White, the San Francisco society woman who is on her way to the Philippines to marry Captain Buck of the army.

Just before the vessel sailed Chief Taylor and Detective Reeves took the four negro soldiers to the ship who had pounded up their comrade Friday night near King and Smith streets. They will be dealt with according to military discipline. W. A. Pratt another negro soldier who knocked three Japanese down in succession and soon had what must have seemed to him the whole Japanese nation at his heels as he fled down Queen street, was also put aboard. He was before Judge Andrade and was found guilty of three charges of assault and battery, but sentence was suspended to enable him to be put aboard the vessel to go to the Philippines to fight the battles of his country, if need be.

NEW MOORING POINT.

The Japanese fishermen are finding a new place to moor their fishing sampans when they are not out fishing. In the past they have used the upper of the slips at the Ewa end of the harbor, and also along the line of the naval reserve near the boat clubhouses and the pilothouse. Of late they have begun to line up on the Ewa side of the new Alakea street wharf. At almost any part of the day now, that wharf presents some of the picturesque of the Italian fishermen's wharf in San Francisco.

THE FALLS OF CLYDE.

According to a Portland dispatch in the San Francisco Chronicle of March 6, the tug Navigator is not towing the ship Falls of Clyde to this port, as was reported by the Merchants' Exchange. The dispatch says that the tug Navigator towing the schooner

Monterey from Monterey, with fuel oil, arrived at Portland March 5, having made the tow to the Columbia bar in ninety hours. From this it would seem that the Falls of Clyde is coming here under her own sail which would account for the length of time she has taken. She is now out seventeen days, which would be a long time if she were in tow, but is not a long time for sailing.

THE INTER-ISLAND FLEET.

The Inter-Island arrivals yesterday included the Kinau which got in about half-past nine o'clock in the morning. She reports very smooth seas and good weather. Among her passengers were some of the newspaper correspondents who have been with the Governor and his party.

The Likeliike got in from windward Hawaii ports and the Neoua from Hamakua. The Ke Au Hou arrived from Kauai.

The Despatch, which was expected to arrive yesterday, will not get in until today. The seas have been rough on leeward Kauai for the greater part of the week delaying loading and discharging operations.

SIBERIA BRINGING MANY.

The Siberia, which is due here on Monday, having sailed from San Francisco March 10, will come with every cabin taken, and her hold crowded with freight.
